Mr. William G. Tharp
Personnel Officer
Central Intelligence Group

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Tharp:

Reference is made to your letter of April 30, 1946 recommending that authority to operate under the provisions of Schedule B, which the State, War and Navy Departments have asked be extended to them for the staffing of the Central Intelligence Group, be approved and made effective immediately.

In accordance with your request authority is hereby granted to the State, War and Navy Departments under Section 7 of Executive Order No. 9691 of February 4, 1946 to effect appointments to all positions assigned exclusively to Central Intelligence Group activities in the same manner as appointments are effected under Schedule B of the civil service rules.

In accordance with Section 7 of the Executive order, this authority will not apply to positions filled by persons having a classified (competitive) civil service status.

This authority will be effective upon publication in the Federal Register as required by the Executive order.

By direction of the Commission:

Sincerely yours,

Harry B. Mitchell
